Use This as a Guide When You Write Your Family and Friends

Dear _____,

My church has begun a Sister Church Partnership with a church in Haiti. This program is under the auspices of Reciprocal Ministries International. I am excited about this opportunity and my goal is to form a relationship that is spiritual, practical, in-depth, intimate, reciprocal and ongoing.

RMI is based in the Ft. Myers, Florida area and has been operating for over 20 years. They provide a training program as well as a cross-cultural staff on the field to facilitate this relationship and to assist both in the ministries and the projects that the two churches would choose together.

Our church team will be visiting our Haitian Sister Church on (date) and I feel God would have me to be a part of this endeavor. I will be involved in the six-week training program covering such things as language, history, geography, culture and related Biblical studies to prepare for this experience. I am confident the Lord will go before me as I am faithful in this preparation.

We are encouraged to acquire prayer partners who will be faithful to hold our needs up before the Lord. Can I count on you to pray daily for me? I will share answers as well as requests with you and in this way you will become a vital part of our team.

Each team member must trust the Lord for the provision of their airfare and in-country expenses in Haiti. If friends would each give $ along with my own funds, my financial needs would be met. Would you be willing to consider such a gift?

Any contribution would be tax deductible and should be made out to (name of church), and sent back to me in the enclosed self-addressed envelope. Please enclose a note stating my name, and "Haiti Sister Church Team".

Please let me know if you desire to be a part of this team by praying and /or helping me with finances. Thank you.

Sincerely in Christ,

Your Name

[We would encourage you to include a self-addressed stamped envelope.]
